INTRODUCTION TO THE SELF-ASSESSMENT

The Self-Assessment procedure is developed to help a department and its programme director to present information about its Erasmus based postgraduate programme in orthodontics in preparation for an evaluation visit by an Evaluation Committee of the Network. The primary focus of the self-assessment process should be to assess the effectiveness of the programme in meeting (1) the programme's stated goals and objectives and (2) the Network's Standards for Erasmus based Postgraduate Programmes in Orthodontics.

The Self-Assessment Report should be a concise, yet thorough, summary of the findings of the self-study process. Programmes must respond to all questions included in the Self-Assessment Guide. The responses should be succinct, but must, in every case, provide or cite evidence demonstrating compliance with each of the Network Standards.

A self-assessment is not a simple narrative description of the programme. Whilst the latter is necessary, the self-assessment should provide an analysis of strengths and weaknesses of the programme, as well as providing an outline for aspirational objectives that have not been fully achieved. It should be emphasized that, whilst the self-assessment is essential to the evaluation process, the major value of an effective self-assessment should be to the programme itself. The report should aim to summarize and synthesize the methods and findings of the self evaluation process.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE SELF-ASSESSMENT

The Self-Assessment contains questions that can be answered either YES or NO. The response must be supported and the programme must provide the "documentary evidence" on which the answer is based. The self-assessment process is thus evidence-based and able to demonstrate compliance with the agreed Network Standards. The self-assessment questionnaire will require the programme to provide an appendix of information. There will be a final summary comprising qualitative appraisal and analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of the programme.

The following general instructions apply to the development of the self-assessment report:

1. The information collected during the self-study should be presented in the order that the sections and questions appear in the Self-Assessment Guide. The programme's written responses must provide sufficient information to enable assessors to understand how the programme operates.
2. All questions in the Self-Assessment Guide should be addressed. Where a programme has chosen to meet a particular standard in a manner other than that suggested by the questions, a clear explanation must be given as to how the programme complies with the Network Standards. There is no need to repeat at length information that can be found elsewhere in the documentation but clear reference to those sections of the report containing the information should be used.
